Event Sourcing POC | A5-Labs Gaming Company:

- Led backend development for an event-sourcing POC for high-scale gaming applications, enhancing real-time data processing and reliability.
- Utilized Kafka for event streaming, PostgreSQL, and MongoDB for data persistence, and Elasticsearch for optimized data retrieval and indexing.
- Integrated data pipelines to ensure real-time data flow, contributing to a scalable, high-performance backend.
- Employed Protobuf for efficient data serialization, reducing payload size and network traffic.

API Development:

- Developed high-performance APIs using FastAPI and Flask, focusing on scalability to support application growth.
- Designed RESTful services, streamlining system integrations across platforms.
- Used PostgreSQL with query optimizations for efficient data management.
- Collaborated with front-end teams to ensure seamless API functionality.

Druid-Flow Project:

- Created an automated data pipeline using Apache Airflow for workflow management.
- Scheduled and monitored data processing tasks, improving operational efficiency.
- Managed data dependencies, ensuring reliability and scalability in data handling.
