Project : Health Insurance System

Environment : Java, Spring boot , Spring Data JPA, MySQL, React.

Project Description:

Implemented a strategic initiative to provide health and insurance coverage for Alaska residents. Developed HMO and CHP programs for low-income families. Managed Medicaid and Medicare benefits. The system automates the approval process by evaluating citizen eligibility against predefined rules for each plan. It also manages user data, plan details, and integrates with external systems for data verification and processing.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Developed a strategic initiative for providing health and insurance coverage to Alaska residents.
- Designed and implemented HMO and CHP programs for low-income families.
- Automated approval workflows based on eligibility rules and integrated with external systems.
- Built reusable REST APIs for policy management, claim approvals, and user enrollment.
- Implemented Feign Client in Microservices for inter-service communication.
- Optimized database queries and integrated with MySQL for better performance.
- Collaborated in requirement gathering, coding, and optimization of application performance.
- Tested APIs thoroughly using Postman and Swagger for accuracy and reliability
- Integrating the API endpoints to the given screens by using React.

Project : Inventory Management System

Environment: Java, Spring Boot, React.js, MySQL, Bootstrap, Maven, Git

Description:

Developed a full-stack Inventory Management web application using Spring Boot and React.js. Implemented CRUD operations with individual item editing and real-time updates. Used MySQL for data storage with strong focus on validation and error handling. Built RESTful APIs for seamless front-end and back-end integration.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Designed a responsive UI using Bootstrap, React Hooks, and Axios for API calls.
- Developed and consumed RESTful APIs using Spring Boot.
- Focused on input validation and error handling for reliable performance.
- Ensured clean code, modular structure, and dependency management with Maven.
- Used Git for version control and participated in Agile sprints.

EDUCATIONAL DETAILS:

- Bachelors in CS from Sri Chaitanya Degree College, Miryalaguda
